1. Call to Order
2. Approval of March 26, 2026 Minutes
3. Introduction of Incoming Superintendent Dr. Zdravec
4. Confirm Goal(s) of the Committee and Define Measures of Committee Success

Proposed Goal of the Joint Education Subcommittee

The goal of the Joint Education Subcommittee is to strengthen collaboration, communication, and long-term alignment between the City Council and the School Committee in order to support informed decision-making and advance the educational and operational needs of Amesbury Public Schools.

The subcommittee should serve as a proactive forum for shared understanding — helping municipal and school leaders anticipate challenges, coordinate priorities, and build trust through regular dialogue and transparency.

The Joint Ed Subcommittee will be successful if it leads to:

- Improved communication between the City Council and School Committee
- Stronger collaboration and working relationships
- More informed budget and capital planning discussions
- Better alignment on long-term goals and priorities

5. School Leadership Transitions
