4. LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT STATEMENT

We acknowledge that Longmont sits on the traditional territory of the Cheyenne, Arapaho, Ute, and other indigenous peoples. We honor the history and the living and spiritual connection that the first peoples have with this land. It is our commitment to face the injustices that happened when the land was taken, and to educate our communities, ourselves, and our children to ensure that these injustices do not happen again. (Adopted by the Longmont City Council, July 13, 2021)

5. INCLUSION STATEMENT

The Sustainability Advisory Board embraces diverse perspectives from its members and the public. To create an inclusive space where everyone feels welcome to share their opinion, the Board asks that all attendees listen and speak with respect and avoid attacks on individuals or specific group identities.
