6. BOARD COMMENTS & REPORTS

Chair Boyett raised a question about the status of a marketing plan for Measure H. Staff explained that a multifaceted communications and marketing plan is currently being developed, including a podcast, broader outreach efforts, and refreshed branding to make the Measure H logo more visible. There was discussion about promoting Measure H on physical assets like park benches and prominently displaying the logo on completed projects, such as the upcoming Chavez Park improvements. Board members expressed interest in highlighting completed projects and bringing back an update at a future meeting, likely in May. Staff also noted plans to launch an open data platform focused on Measure H to provide the public with transparent information on projects, funding, and performance metrics.
